YOUTH ENSEMBLE

What others are saying...

Akron Public Library Performance – December 2009

"I am always moved by the dynamic energy and precision of your dancers. The Hungarian tradition is kept alive with such robust performances! Each time I see your company my admiration grows for the precise and beautiful way Csárdás brings the Hungarian traditions of dance and music to life! Thank you for generously sharing them with us again this holiday season."
Suzanne G. Winland, Artistic Director, PointWest Performances Arts Consortium

Lake County Captains Baseball – August 2009

You are fantastic. Csardas was a huge hit and I hope to have them back at the Stadium next season. Thank you for all of your hard work and dedication. Stuart is also a real professional. What a quality company you have there.
Andrew Grover, Ticket Sales Account Executive, Lake County Captains

Cleveland Music Settlement Performance – June 2009

"I am writing to thank you for the terrific performance by your dancers at the end of our first week of camp. What a fitting finale to our week of studying Hungary! We were all so impressed by the skill and beauty of the dancers, their memory and their grace, their gorgeous outfits, dedication, wow the list goes on!"
Amanda Matthews, Instructor Cleveland Music Settlement

Cleveland Hungarian Cultural Gardens Rededication – August 2008

"Thank you for all your help in making the Rededication Ceremony on Sunday a success. Please also convey my thanks to all the dancers who gave of their time and talent for a perfect day in the garden. The group was wonderful and you were wonderful to work with. What a picture they present to the entire community. My congratulations to your fine dancers."
Carolyn Balogh, Cleveland Hungarian Development Panel

The Cleveland Orchestra at Severance Hall – Family Concert Series – April 2008

"It was a joy to watch the young men and women of the Csárdás Dance Company Youth Ensemble perform on the main stage at Severance Hall this Spring. The ensembles' colorful costumes were a beautiful and striking contrast to the Orchestra's classic attire. And the dancers' commitment to their art was evident in their well-rehearsed choreography and expressive performances which added a new dimension to our Dancing with Dvořák concert. Bravo on a job well done!"
Joan Katz Napoli, Director, Educational Programs, The Cleveland Orchestra, Severance Hall

Cleveland Hungarian Development Panel "Paprika Ball" – Feb. 2008

"They were the jewel that made our event great. The Ambassador was delighted to see the young people and commented on the beautiful costumes."
Marika Megimori, President Cleveland Hungarian Development Panel

Cleveland Hungarian Heritage Society – Sep. 2007

"The dancers were wonderful!!! I can't say enough how lovely they were, but much more, they were precise and professional and their smiles lit up the room and everyone's hearts - it all showed how much they enjoyed what they were doing. It was a perfect accompaniment to the exhibit and a great opportunity for those who were there to see that there is most definitely a young generation interested in all this wonderful old culture, and how very capable they are."
Andrea Lazar, WCPN Kapossy Radio, Cleveland Hungarian Heritage Society

Bob Taft, Governor, State of Ohio – Aug. 2006

"You are to be commended for contributing to the multicultural diversity of the State of Ohio and for preserving the rich traditions and cultural heritage of your ancestors for future generations."
