

AN EVENING OF HUNGARIAN DANCE

The Hungarian State Folk Ensemble

The Hungarian State Folk Ensemble, regarded as one of the greatest Folkloric dance ensembles in the world, will bring their rich and colorful repertoire to the Palace Theatre stage. Having performed in 44 countries across four continents, The Hungarian State Folk Ensemble has won the admiration of an audience of more than seven and a half million people. The choreographies are all based on authentic dances, some of them dating back hundreds of years. The extraordinary folk music that inspired Liszt, Bartok and Kodaly is put on stage by both the Folk Orchestra and the world-famous Gipsy Orchestra.

CSÁRDÁS
DANCE COMPANY

Cleveland's own Csárdás Dance Company presents traditional and contemporary works stemming from Hungarian heritage. Founded in 1994 by Richard Graber, Csárdás strives to promote and further ethnic dance as an art form as it embodies the infectious exuberance celebrated in Hungarian villages. The richness of the Hungarian culture is revealed through performances featuring a broad range of dance dialects and styles. The Company preserves the brilliant splendor of folk elements meshed with contemporary choreography creating a rich and exciting cultural experience.
